ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My thanks go to number of people who cheerfully encouraged and helped me in my endeavour to undertake the study of great political leader Master Gurbanta Singh who dominated the Dalit Politics of Punjab for full five decades.

I wholeheartedly thank my supervisor Dr. Surjit Singh Narang, Professor (Retd.), Department of Political Science, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for giving virtual life to my research.

I am specially thankful to Chaudhari Jagjit Singh, Former Minister, Local Bodies, Punjab, and President, Master Gurbanta Singh Janta College, Kartarpur whose inspiration primarily became responsible for this fruitful academic exercise.

My heart-felt thanks go to my worthy Principal Madam (Dr.) Gurpreet Kaur who has always strengthened me by inspiring by her own example of devoted service to the humanity.

My worthy elderly colleague Madam Jasbir Kaur Gill has always been a cheering and helping hand around. My other colleagues in the College have always helped me. All these deserve my thanks.

I wish to express my profound gratitude to Professor Kuldip Singh, Professor and Head, Department of Political Science, Professor Gurnam Singh, Professor Jagrup Singh Sekhon, Dr. R.S. Sandhu and Mr. Harmeet Singh for their valuable suggestions and timely help.

I also wish to thank the non-teaching staff of the Department of Political Science for their affection.

I am indebted to my loving late husband Sh. Jatinder Kumar Sharma (SI) and my dear children Kajol and Talwinder who bore with me the difficult times of research.

I also wish to make a mention of the Subhash Computers, where the final draft of the thesis was prepared.

(Asha Rani)