Here, I would like to acknowledge those persons whose assistance and contribution was determinant in the realization of this thesis, which otherwise would not have been possible. Various people have contributed to and influenced me during my research work, which I cannot list them all and must ask the forgiveness of those I omit.

First and foremost, I bow my head in reverence to the Almighty God for providing me the positive strength and energy to work on this topic and enabling me to reach far beyond my own restricted ambit of thought and action.

I feel honored to express my profound regard and a deep sense of gratitude to my worthiest and most esteemed supervisor Dr. B.S. Hundal, Reader, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for his valuable, sagacious and constructive guidance. He provided intellectual, creative and affectionate support to me throughout this research work. He has always been there to help, not only in research work, but also in emotional ups and downs one goes through during the research work. Without his constant inspiration, I would not have been able to successfully handle this task. Many thanks for his understanding and generous attitude for keeping his doors open all the time. For me, he is next to God.

I am also thankful to Dr. Balwinder Singh Saini, Head, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for providing me all required facilities to complete the research work. My deepest thank is also due to Ex-Head of the department, Dr. Amarjeet Singh Sidhu.

I am sincerely grateful and indebted to Dr. P.C. Jain, Principal for arranging the research methodology workshop in the college and provided me all the facilities for the smooth conduct of my work and for the completion of this challenging job.

I cannot resist the joy of bowing my head before the fountain-heads of my inspiration for having attempted to undertake this arduous yet creative task, while my parents stands before me as an enterprising and dynamic force. Without their trust, encourage and emotional support, I would not have been to complete my research work. I am very thankful to my wife Priyanka Aggarwal, especially for her continue support and motivation to complete research work.

I express my sincere appreciation to my friend Amarinder Singh for his co-operation and courage to realize my goal. I am very thankful to Dr. Anil Kumar, Associate Professor, Shri Ram College of Commerce, Delhi for helping me in solving problems related to data analyzing.
