1. How do you define a successful project?

2. What do you aim for in your work?

3. Total number of units under the top executive of firms head.

4. How many staff are responsible for the primary activities of design and production?

5. How many additional staff units are engaged in supportive activities such as client contacts, legal services, research and coordination of construction activities?

6. How many of the different services the firm is/was able to provide? (Please put a tick / mark)

1. Financial analysis
2. Programming
3. Land use studies
4. Interior Design
5. Innovative construction techniques
6. Restoration and Preservation
7. Research
8. Project analysis
9. Feasibility studies
10. Construction Management
11. Industrial Layout
12. Altering and remodeling techniques
13. Real Estate Investment
14. Mortgage service

7. Whether or not the firm entered into a joint-venture with another architectural or other type of firm?

8. The firms consultation with other type of firm.

1. Structural Engineers
2. Mechanical Engineers
3. Electrical Engineers
4. Acoustical Engineers
5. Lighting Designers
6. Estimators
7. Landscape architects
8. Graphic Designers
9. Specification consultants
10. Planners
11. Material specialists
12. Interior Designers
13. Traffic consultants
14. Food service consultants
15. Industrial specialists

9. Total number of full-time equivalent staff.

10. Are you particular that your staff should be present in the office on time.

11. Does your concern have any written rules and regulation?