ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I thank the Correspondent Mrs. G. Rajalakshmi Genguswamy and the secretary Dr. V. Genguswamy Naidu for allowing me to undertake this study.

First I record my heartfelt thanks to my Research Guide Dr. G. Jayakumari, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., Reader and Head, Department of English, Sri. G. V. G. Visalakshi College for Women (Autonomous), (Re-Accredited at B++ Level by NAAC) Udumalpet for her valuable guidance, unstinted assistance and constant motivation during the period of my research work. She was kind and gracious enough to spare her valuable time to discuss with me several crucial and cardinal points pertaining to the thesis. Her observations, comments and suggestions were all a source of great help to me. I owe her a deep debt of gratitude.

Next I express my profound thanks to Dr. J. Manjula, M.A., Ph.D., Principal Sri. G. V. G. Visalakshi College for Women, Udumalpet for granting me permission to carryout my research work as a part-time candidate and for her commendable encouragement and support.

I am under obligation to Dr. P. Thilambal, M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D., for her moral support and generous help. My sincere thanks are due to my Department Colleagues for their unflagging support, valuable advice and inspiring suggestions in shaping my research work.
I am extremely thankful to the Librarians of Sri. G.V.G. Visalakshi College for Women, Udumalpet, Indo-American Centre for International Studies, Hyderabad, and Bharathiar University, Coimbatore for their generous help in providing me the sources required for my research work.

I am grateful to my family members who gave me moral support, a quiet home and comforting moments during the entire period of my research work.

Above all, this arduous task manifests the greatness of God, the Almighty, who has been showering His abundant grace on me and endowed me with wisdom, inspiration, mental courage and good health throughout the period of my research. My heart swells with gratitude to Him.
