Acknowledgement

I wish to express my most sincere gratitude to God Almighty who granted me the wisdom, power, courage to undertake and complete this study.

My guide, Professor P. C. Saxena, Former Garware Chair Professor, Centre for Research Methodology, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Deemed University), Mumbai, who is instrumental in selection of topic of thesis. I am grateful to him for his inspirational guidance, patience, motivation and scholarly advice, especially during the time when progress was difficult, reviewing every chapter of thesis methodically and meticulously.

My husband, Mr. Dinesh Abbi, I am indebtedness to him as the completion of thesis would have been impossible without his support and cooperation at every stage of thesis including data collection involving travelling to villages. I am grateful to my sons, Anurag and Amit for their unwavering support and encouragement. I wish to offer my heartfelt thanks to my friends and family members, for their indispensable help and assistance in completion of this thesis.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Prof. D. P. Singh (from Tata Institute of Social Sciences), for making me available of software STATISTICA and helping in drawing Chernoff Faces. I am grateful to Mr. Mestry, (Librarian from International Institute for Population Sciences) for providing me immense help in reviewing books and journals. I am thankful to Dr. Omprakash Chahar, JJT University, for his whole hearted support in solving queries related to thesis.

I am obliged to education officers, principals, teachers of Zilha Parishad, Navi Mumbai Municipal Corporation and private schools for their enormous cooperation during data collection and sharing their views about primary education. I appreciate the contribution of school management teams and households who responded to the research questionnaires. I am thankful to City and Industrial Development Corporation for allowing me to pursue Ph.D. degree.
