ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This Thesis is end of my journey in obtaining my Ph.D. I have not travelled in a vacuum in this Journey. This thesis has been kept on track and been seen through to completion with the support and encouragement of numerous people including my well wishers, my friends, colleagues and various banking institutions.

First and foremost, praises and thanks to the God, the Almighty, for His showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully.

At this moment of accomplishment, first of all I pay homage to my guide Dr. Vinod Kumar Gupta. This work would not have been possible without his guidance, support and encouragement. Under his guidance I successfully overcame many difficulties and learned a lot. Despite of his busy schedule, he used to review my thesis progress, gave his valuable suggestions and made corrections. His unflinching courage and conviction will always inspire me and I hope to continue to work with his noble thoughts.

I am also extremely indebted to our Mr. Manish Gupta, Chancellor, Jagan Nath University, Mr. Deepak Gupta, Vice Chairman, Jagan Nath Gupta Memorial Education Society, Dr. V. K. Agarwal, Vice Chancellor, Jagan Nath University for providing necessary infrastructure, research environment and resources to accomplish my research work. I am very much thankful for his valuable advice, constructive criticism and his extensive discussions around my work.

I gratefully acknowledge Prof. Y.S. Shishodia, Pro. Vice Chancellor, Jagan Nath University for his understanding, encouragement and personal attention which have provided good and smooth basis for my Ph.D. tenure.

I also express my sense of gratitude to Dr. Anand Prakash Agrawal, Jagannath University, Jaipur for his help, without it could have not been possible to complete thesis.
These acknowledgments would not be complete without thanking my family for their constant support and care. My thanks are due to my father Er. Ishwar Lal Bagoria for always putting my education first and supporting me in everything I have done, also he contributed his valuable suggestions and untried help during sample collection.

It’s my fortune to gratefully acknowledge the support of my mother Mrs. Gaytri Bagoria for her support, generous care of my lovely doll (Angel) and She was always beside me during the happy and hard moments to push me and motivate me.

A journey is easier when you travel together. Interdependence is certainly more valuable than independence. This thesis is the result of support, encouragement, care and understanding of my husband Dr. Surendra Kumar.

I would like to pay high regards to my father in law Mr. Balu Ram for their sincere encouragement and inspiration throughout my research work and lifting me uphill to this phase of my life.

Last but not least, I am thankful to my brothers Abhishek, Ashish and my sister Neha for their love and long continuing support extended to me. I owe everything to them. Besides this, several people have knowingly and unknowingly helped me in the successful completion of this project.

I also thank the members of my PhD committee members for constant support and encouragement.

At the end of my thesis, it is a pleasant task to express my thanks to all those who contributed in many ways to the success of this study and made it an unforgettable experience for me.
