ACKNOWLEDGEMENT
I owe my sincere gratitude to Dr. A. Kolandaivelu, Lecturer (Selection Grade), Post Graduate and Research Department of History, Sri Vasavi College, Erode, my guide and supervisor who has been a source of inspiration and encouragement from the beginning. He has taken keen interest at all stages of the preparation of my thesis. But for his help, this work would not have been completed.

I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. V. Sivakumar, Principal, Sri Vasavi College, Erode, Dr. P. Munirathnam Chetty and other History Faculty Members of Sri Vasavi College, Erode, for their constant encouragement given to me in connection with my research work.

I owe a particular debt of gratitude to Dr. C. Mooka Reddy, Retired Librarian, Sri Vasavi College, Erode, for his persistent help in my research work.

My thanks are also due to Non-Teaching Staff Members of Sri Vasavi College, Erode, for their kind help in completing this work.

The collection of materials for the present study has entailed the consultation of Libraries and Archives in different parts of South India. Acknowledgement is due to the Librarians and the Archivists for furnishing me with the relevant research materials.

My sincere thanks are to Prof. T. S. Tirumalaivelu, M.A., M.Phil., Assistant Professor of English, Government Arts College, Karur for his kind help.

I am also much thankful to Mrs. K. Kamala Kalyanasundaram, Assistant Librarian, University of Madras, who helped me in collecting source materials.

I am indebted to my brother Er. S. Velmurugan, Karur, for the full monetary support and encouragement which I have got from him in connection with my study.

Last but by no means least is the obligation with Mr. N. Elavarasu, Proprietor, The Unique Micro Computer Centre, Karur, for the highly satisfactory computer typographical impression.

PLACE: ERODE

DATE: 26/4/96

(S. YASODHA MANI)