ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All I could get today because, “HE” desired it, they helped me because “HE” wanted that way, every hurdle and obstacle was won because “HE” was with me, most of the things went my life because “HE” architectured my path, stress and strains could be conquered because “HE” inspired me, my mistakes were nullified most of the times because “HE” cared for me..... HE is “GOD SHIVA”. So first of all, I bow to the Almighty under whose shadow this work could be completed and enabled me to see today “The joy of a task done”.

I feel it a divine to mention my deep indebtedness to my learned and revered teacher Dr.(Mrs.) S.R. Academic life without friends is a distance reality. I can never forget cheerful company, loving attitude, help and appreciation from galaxy of my friends Arun Prabha, Suruchi, Sujata, Madhur, Monika, Suman, Anjuli, Maneka, Chetna and Sangeeta.....

However, God helps through the few chosen ones and they are my parents; Mrs. Nirmla Banyal, Sh. R.S. Banyal, Amma ji and everlasting memories of my dada ji, who always been a source and force behind my inspirations and aspirations. A word of thank or appreciation or acknowledgement is too tiny to express my feelings, so I humbly offer my prime salutation at the lotus feet of these most revered personalities in my life. Their sacrifices, love, heartfelt blessings and firm faith had made this manuscript a feeble recompense to translate their dreams into reality. The affection and moral support of my gracious brother Lakshay Banyal; sisters: Mrs. Bindra Patial, Mrs. Renu Thakur and jijus: Mr. Ajay Patial and Mr. Bhupender Singh Thakur cannot be appreciated in mere words. I would also like to mention the names of loving nephews: Aryan, Raghav, Pranav and nieces: Aadarshika and Shradha on this occasion.

My heartfelt gratitude is due to my husband Mr. Naresh Thakur for his care, support and everlasting encouragement that always stirred me to put my best efforts. I am also hearty indebted to my parents in-law, brothers in-law Mr. Kapil Tkakur and Mr. Manoj Rana and sister in-law Mrs. Monika Rana for their moral support.

The help rendered by Dr. H.L. Sharma and Dr. M. Bhargawa in the statistical analysis is also acknowledged.

Acknowledgements are inheritedly endless and incomplete. Thanks to one & all and to those, whose names could not appear but at one stage or another have helped me in some ways to achieve the goal.

To end, I solely claim all responsibilities for the shortcomings and limitations if any in this manuscript.
