ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Utmost duty of mine is to convey my first sincerest regard to Dr. Jayanta Mete, Professor, Department of Education, University of Kalyani, for his sympathetic and careful guidance discharged to me as when as I needed during the research work, otherwise this work could not have been completed. Moreover I have no alternative to confess that he is the definition of perfect guide. I express my heartiest gratitude to him.

Dr. Dulal Mukhopadhaya, an eminent educationist has given me such type of mental and academic support by which it became some easier to carry on my research work. I am indebted to him. I want to take the opportunity to confess my debt to him.

Dr. Debi Prasad Nag Chowdhury, ex Principal of Shimurali Sachinandan College of Education, is an inspirational personality. His inspiration led me to go ahead to do my work. I am beholden to you, Sir.

Sujal Ghosh, my student, was always ready to help me to do my research work. What a energetic personality he is!

Asif Ahmed, a man of energy and selflessness, was more interested than me for proper completion of my work.

I sincerely apologize for my paucity of words to describe Anikul Rahaman who provided all sorts of help by supplying data for my work.

Nargis Parvin, Md. Selim, Firdous Khatun, Sabir Ali were always ready to help me. Without their help it might have been harder for me to continue my work. I want to take this opportunity to express my thanks to all whose names mentioned above.

Dr. Santanu Sen, my colleague, is a man of wonder. His continuous inspiration and support was with me. Without his inspiration and help I could not go even one step forward for the completion of my work.

Tirthapratim Mal and Rajib Saha rendered assistance and sincere support since the beginning of my work. They gave me relevant suggestion and information related to the work. But no amount of gratitude is enough to repay their loan owed to Dr. Santanu Sen, Tirthapratim Mal and Rajib Saha.

Dr. Subrata Mandal and Dr. Nintu Mondal, my ex colleagues, gave me active support and boosting whenever I required. I extend my thanks to both of them.
Dr. Anasua Bagchi, Asstt. Professor, Domkol girls’ college made this work possible and spared time to answer my necessary questions. I express my thanks to her.

Tarini Halder, Assistant Professor, University of Kalyani supplied me sufficient books, journals, magazines. So I did not face any trouble for lack of materials. I express my sincere gratitude to him also.

Dr. Samirranjan Adhikary, Trishna Goswami, Shambhu Halder, my colleagues gave me moral and active support to do my work. I express my thanks to all of them.

Office Staff of my college were always helpful to me to do my research work. I thank to all of them.

Sudharani Das, my mother-in-law, Sukla Talukdar, my mother had been a constant source of support towards my research work. I acknowledge their support and affection to me with deepest respect.

I remember my father and father-in-law with reverence at this moment. They are no more when I need them so much.

I thank all my relatives who extended their support to carry on my work directly or indirectly.

Salmali and Anandi, two important members of my family, gave enormous support. Sometimes they had been deprived from my company. Even though they had no complaint against me. They sincerely wanted so that I could have completed my work. I have got the opportunity to confess their contribution to my work.

I am obliged to the officer and staff of Department of Minority Affairs and Madrasa Education, Government of West Bengal (Nadia, Murshidabad) for their selfless assistance, service and co-operation.

I am also indebted to the officers and staff of the Central Library and Departmental Library of the University of Kalyani. They gave me the best possible help by supplying books time to time.

At last but not least I thank Mr. Supriyo Roy of M/s Tendercare Computers, Kalyani for his untiring service which helped the research report to come out.
