ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Successful accomplishment of this thesis to be submitted to Guru Nanak Dev University for the award of Ph.D degree in Education is one of my life time achievements and stepping stone to accomplishment. I would like to acknowledge the following personals for helping me during the entire process of this study.

My guide, Dr. Amit Kauts, Principal, MGN College of Education, Jalandhar who is a man of exceptional intelligence, knowledge, abilities and qualities, quite readily consented to be my guide and subsequently like a beacon of light guided me in such a persuasive manner, that I was capable to complete this ambitious task without having faced any difficulty. He has been continuous source of my inspiration and encouragement. It is due to his untiring and unconditional support, cooperation, and step wise guidance made this study a success. Under his mentorship the work done has made the things enjoyable.

Dr. (Mrs.) Deepa Sikand Kauts, Associate Professor, MGN College of Education, Jalandhar for her motherly care and for providing healthy and constant encouragement for compiling this work. Her motivation is instrumental since the start of this huge task and continued till the end without which this may not have taken this shape.

My debt is also heaviest to my wife, Mrs. Monika Chouhan, for her colossal patience, devotion and for her forbearance of my neglect exercised at different stages of this work. My daughter Mannat, because she is one who at many times was neglected and didn’t get the love and time she deserved. Though, I cannot weigh my feeling with the words - for all she have been doing for me, so assiduously in spite of many family constraints, in pursuing this high realm of learning all these years, which is something inexpressible, yet deep in my heart, she know better.

My heartfelt gratitude goes to my parents, brother and sister in law for their assistance, inspiration, encouragement and blessings which played a pivotal role for my higher academic pursuits.
My father in law needs special gratitude because he was one person who continuously reminded me and does not let my focus go away from the target. His desire to see me complete the degree will always remain in my memories.

Most gratefully, I express my thanks to all principal and teachers of schools for assistance during various stage of data collection. My special thanks to my uncle Mr. DC Bhatia and Mr. Balwinder Singh Kalsi for their support in data collection.

While acknowledging my debt to all those who helped me, I simply cannot be oblivious of my friends, students and colleagues who provided to me every sort of help, I required of them.

Date:______________  Vijay Kumar
Investigator