ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to:

Supervisor, Dr. J.P. Pascal, French Institute, Pondicherry and presently Director of Research, University of Lyon, France, for suggesting this problem, his continued guidance, constructive suggestions and for going through the manuscript in spite of his hectic schedule.

Dr. K. Balasubramanyan, Scientist-in-charge, Ecology Division, Kerala Forest Research Institute, Peechi for spending his valuable time and expertise in guiding, advising and inspiring me as and when needed throughout the study period.

Dr. V.M. Meher-Homji, French Institute, Pondicherry and former Dean, Salim Ali School of Ecology and Environmental Sciences, for inducting me as a Research Fellow, for improving the manuscript with his valuable suggestions and also for his constant encouragement.

Dr. K. V. Devi Prasad, Head, Salim Ali School of Ecology and Environmental Sciences, Pondicherry University for advice and co-operation to smoothen all administrative matters.

Dr. F. Houllier, Director, French Institute, Pondicherry for wholeheartedly providing all the facilities of the Institute.

Dr. S. Chand Basha, I.F S.(Rtd) former Director and Dr K S.S.Nair, present Director, Kerala Forest Research Institute, Peechi for providing all the facilities of the Institute.

World Wide Fund for Nature, New Delhi for providing financial assistance for this study.

All the Senior Officers of Kerala Forest Department especially M/s. P. N. Surendran, T. K. Raghavan Nair, K. Sasidharan Nair, P. K. Surendranath Asari, M. Govindan Kutty and T. M. Manoharan - all Chief Conservators of the Department for encouragement and support

Prof. Madhav Gadgil, Director, Centre for Ecological Sciences, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore - an authority on sacred groves, for sharing his literature and for many fruitful discussions in the incipient stage.
Dr. G. Bourgeon, Dr. G. Vasanthy and Dr. Claire Elouard - Scientists, French Institute for valuable suggestions to improve the manuscript.

Dr. B. R. Ramesh, Scientist, French Institute for sharing his unpublished data on the distribution of some of the endemic trees, valuable suggestions on the manuscript and helping to map the distribution of groves.

Dr. Rani Krishnan, French Institute for many lively discussions and all help and encouragements

Dr. N. Sasidharan K. F. R. I. Peechi for taxonomical assistance.

Sri. H. Ram Mohan - the computer expert - French Institute, for sharing his knowledge in computer and for the brotherly affection

Sri. S. Ramalingam, French Institute for cheerful co-operation in editing.

M/s. S. Aravajy and Bharathani Ravi, French Institute for help to refer herbarium.

Miss. Reena P. C., and Mr. A.R Rajan, K. F. R. I for helping me in data entry and analysis.

Mr. Réne Anandan, Cartography section, French Institute for helping in finalising the maps.

Various temple authorities and nearby devotees for sharing their knowledge and local hospitality

All my nears and dears who have borne all trials and turbulations of my long and periodic absence and in extending emotional support