ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Before I start first, all thanks must be owed to the Almighty God, who gifted one this life and provided me with all the following good people to support and stand behind me in order to complete this work.

I take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Research supervisor Dr. P. V. Krishna, M.Sc., M.Phil., Ph.D., Assistant Professor, for his valuable guidance and constant encouragement during the entire course of my research, without which it would not have been possible for me to complete this work.

My sincere thanks to Prof. V. Viveka vardhani, Head & Chairperson, Board of studies for providing necessary facilities to carry out this work.

I am grateful to Prof. K. R. S. Sambasiva Rao, Dr. K. Veeraiah, Dr. P. Padmavathy, Dr. G. Simhachalam, Dr. M. Jagadeesh Naik, Dr. K. Sumanth Kumar, Dr. V. Venkata Ratnamma, Dr. K. Sunita and Dr. N. Gopala Rao for their suggestion and encouragement.

Also my thanks to Mr. Srinivas, lecturer in Statistics, Andhra Loyola College for his help in analyzing the statistical Data.

I am extremely thankful to P. Hanumantha Rao Naidu, farmer Gangapatnam for his accommodation and constant help in performing the experiments, without whose help I could not complete this work.

My thankful appreciation and affectionate thanks to my beloved brothers B. Deva kumar, P. Prabhakar, K. Desingu Raju and Father in Law G. Prabhakara Rao, for their moral support and encouragements.

Finally, I would like to express my profound gratitude to my wife, Swetcha for her real understanding and continued encouragement during my research study. Special thanks to my newly born son (God gift) for bringing joy and relaxation in my life. Last but not least great thanks to my father and mother who always supported me and expected me to finish my Ph.D. these words are not enough to express my gratitude to them.

Thanks once again to all the people, who helped me to complete my Ph.D. I hope I did not forget any one, but just in case thank you.
