ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Many people and circumstances have helped and encouraged me in various ways. I dedicate this research work to my late father, Prof. F.C. Badhwar, whose heavenly blessings have been my constant source of strength. Here, I also wish to acknowledge the contributions of those who have had a direct influence on this thesis. I sincerely thank my supervisor, Dr Nitin Bhatnagar, Professor and Head, Department of English, MMEC, Mullana for his valuable guidance and for his careful reading of this work. He has provided immeasurable intellectual support during the writing of this project.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr Bhim Singh Dahiya for his extremely useful suggestions and discussions at various stages of my research. The fruitful discussions with him have influenced the development of the ideas presented here. I am extremely thankful to Dr Desh Bandhu, Principal, S D College, Ambala Cantt for extending me his support during the writing of this thesis. Thanks are also due to all my well-wishers and my colleagues from the department of English, S D College, for their incessant encouragement and support.

I also express my heartfelt gratitude to my mother, Mrs Aruna Badhwar, who has been providing exemplary strength to me all my life. I am also thankful to all my family members especially my mother-in-law, Mrs Uma Sethi and father-in-law, Dr B L Sethi for supporting me in everything and providing me with the right amount of motivation.

No words of appreciation are enough for the unconditional love, understanding and care provided to me by my husband, Rakesh Sethi and daughters, Aarushi and Shreya.

By the grace of Almighty and the guidance and support of many whose names I have not been able to include, I have been able to give a vision to my work and complete it in time.

Date: March 30, 2011
Sonika Badhwar