Foreword

It was my earnest desire to undertake research work pertaining to the colonial period, which inaugurated the process of making of India into a Nation. When I consulted Prof. M.T.Kamble, Chairman of Department of History and Archaeology, Karnataka University, Dharwad for suggestions in this regard, he patiently heard my request and gave me a very interesting, thought provoking, and highly potential Area of Research: Role of Press in Indian Nationalist Movement in Karnataka. On my request, he was pleased to guide me on this topic. I am very much indebted to my Friend and Philosopher more so my Research Guide Prof. M.T.Kamble who successfully piloted the present research work. I am greatly indebted to my teacher Prof A.K Shastri, a distinguished research scholar in History, a retired teacher of Arts and Science College, Sirsi who ignited in me an interest about research in History during my college days. The result is that now I could undertake this research work. I am very much indebted to the entire staff of The Library of K.U.D for the fact that they were always helpful in providing reference books that was required for the work. I am indebted to the staff of K.R.I of KUD for providing me valuable reference books for the research work. I indebted to the entire staff of the department of History and Archaeology for their co-operation to carry out this research work. I must acknowledge thanks to Jawaharlal Nehru University; Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi; Kannada University Hampi and also Central University of Hyderabad for their Library facilities for the reference of valuable books I had for my research work. I am very much indebted to the Department of Collegiate Education being provided with me permission to undertake part-time Ph.D work more so I was transferred to Government First Grade College, Hubli, near to Karnataka University Dharwad so as to enable me to do the research work. I am very much indebted to Prof. K. Kodhandarama, Director of Collegiate Education, Bangalore, who was pleased to extend the help I required from my department. I am indebted to Lt. Commander S.G. Navi, Principal Grade-I, Government First Grade College, Hubli who constantly inspired me to do the present research work.

I am very much indebted to my dear father who was fountain of inspiration behind this work Late Shri Venkappa Dasappa Kanade and my dear mother Late Smt. Sunita V. Kanade whom I lost at the brink of completion of this work. I am very much indebted to Shri S. B. Hiremath, an Advocate by profession, Social worker and Power of Attorney of Shri Bannad Mutt Chowkimutt, Sirsi being extended moral and financial help to me to carry out this work successfully. I am very much indebted to Mr. Subhash H. Kanade, an employee of Kaiga Project, Kaiga who constantly inspired me to do this work.

I must extend thanks to my sister. Miss K.V. Chitra, an employee of Corporation Bank, Sirsi who provided with me a Computer with all accessories to prepare the report of my research work. I hardly enlist herewith the names of those who extended moral as well as financial help to make this work a great success as such I ever remain grateful to them. My family deserves much special appreciation being helped me for the completion of this work.