ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Praise be to Almighty who is the source of all knowledge and who created the pen. It is all due to His Mercy and grace that I could complete this stupendous research work. Hence, my first and foremost duty is to offer my humble prayers to His blessing and sincere thanks to Him.

The present dissertation was undertaken and completed under the supervision and able guidance of my honourable Research Guide Dr. V.V. Deshpande, Reader in Sociology, Department of Sociology, whose observations and valuable counsel and whole hearted encouragement have immensely improved this presentation.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. (Mrs) S.V. Kaldate, Professor and Head, Department of Sociology, Marathwada University, Aurangabad for her advice and assistance.

I am highly obliged to Dr. B. Bilawar, Dr. B. L. Joshi, Mr. S. L. Gaikwad and Mrs. Athalye, Stenographer for their constant encouragement and co-operation.

I owe a great debt of gratitude to my Parents, especially my i.e., without whose encouragement, co-operation and assistance at all stages of my higher education and chiefly at this stage the completion of the present research work would have become impossible.

I also feel bound to thank my wife and children Seyed Mohammad and Zehra, who suffered my absence during the period of this research, that forced me to distant places and separated me from them on number of times, the times they missed me and my love and I, them and their love, and at times even at home they suffered in silence so as to enable me to get on with my work.

I must also thank the authorities of different organization and libraries in Islamic Republic of Iran and India for their co-operation.

I would also like to express my thanks to Mr. Shakir Manzani and all my dear friends for their co-operation.

My thanks are also due to the members of Administrative Staff, who helped me at every stages of the present work.

Finally, I wish to thank Mr. Satyanarayana of Impress, who did the typing work with sincerity and affection.
