LIST OF TABLES

chapter 2

Table no. 5  Showing the marital status of the respondent
Table no. 6  Shows the age of the respondents
Table no. 7  Shows the total number of family members of respondents
Table no. 8  Shows mothers literacy of respondents
Table no. 9  Shows father’s/husband’s occupation of respondents
Table no. 10 Showing religion of the respondents
Table no. 11 Showing the caste of the respondents
Table no. 12 Showing the income of the family
Table no. 13  Showing the purchasing of newspaper & reading habits of the respondent
Table no. 14  Showing the liking of the respondent for sports
Table no. 15  Showing the participation in sports of the respondents
Table no. 16  Showing the participation of the respondents in cultural activities
Table no. 17  Showing the participation of the respondents in cultural activities

chapter 3

Table no. 18  Showing the view of the respondents regarding co-education in the university.
Table no. 19  Showing the opinion of the respondents about the friendship among boys and girls.
Chapter 4

Table no. 30   Showing the type of family in which respondents live.
Table no. 31   Showing the type of family respondents would like to live in.
Table no. 32   Showing the reason for liking joint family.
Table no. 33   Showing the reason for disliking joint family
Table no. 34   Showing the importance of religion
Table no. 35   Showing the reason for importance of religion
Table no. 36   Showing if religion is for welfare of people
Table no. 37   Showing if religion gives path to lead life.
Table no. 38   Showing the superiority of religions

Chapter 5

Table no. 39   Showing the necessity for a woman to stand on her own feet.
Table no. 40  Showing the reason for a woman to stand on her own feet
Table no. 41  Showing the respect for working women
Table no. 42  Showing the burden on working women.
Table no. 43  Showing the cooperation of family members with working women.
Table no. 44  Showing the employment of the respondent.
Table no. 45  Showing the interest of the respondents in employment
Table no. 46  Showing the interest of the respondents in profession
Table no. 47  Showing the opinion of the respondent about widow
Table no. 48  Showing the opinion of the respondents for widow remarriage
Table no. 49  Showing the status of widow
Table no. 50  Showing the opinion of the respondents for remarriage of widow
Table no. 51  Showing the opinion of the respondent about self-dependency of widow
Table no. 52  Showing further education of widows

chapter 6

Table no. 53  Showing the career choice
Table no. 54  Showing the reasons to opt for the subject of studies
Table no. 55  Showing the attendance of the respondents in class
Table no. 56  Showing the conveyance of the respondents
Table no. 57  Showing the liberty for higher studies
Table no. 58  Showing the liberty to go outstation for a job.
Table no. 59  Showing the necessity for vocational education
Table no. 60  Showing the reason for the necessity of vocational studies
Table no. 61  Showing the importance
Table no. 62  Showing the educational cost
Table no. 63  Showing the affordability of present day education
Table no. 64  Showing the capability of present day education in providing employment
Table no. 65  Showing necessity of special education to enhance career
Table no. 66  Showing the satisfaction by the educational pattern of the university
              Showing the suggestion for improvement on the educational pattern of university.

Chapter 7

Table no. 68  Showing the students organizations
Table no. 69  Showing indiscipline in the institute
Table no. 70  Showing the reasons for student indiscipline
Table no. 71  Showing if students leadership is beneficial
Table no. 72  Showing the need of a leader in classroom
Table no. 73  Showing the support to students organizations.
Table no. 74  Showing the students participation in politics
Table no. 75  Showing the effects of politics.
Table no. 76  Showing the satisfaction with the administration of the University