Of course nothing could have been possible without the God's grace and his blessings. But I cannot even forget my reverend family for their constant support. I have done my research on the Analytical Study on Organizational Change – A case study of Ballarpur industries Limited Yamunanagar. The study focuses on the employee’s performance by making changes in the organization. The present study has been divided into six chapters dealing with all the important aspects of Organization Change in Ballarpur Industries Limited Yamunanagar. The first chapter entitled introduction presents the general introduction about the topic. It also includes the topic of industrial organization.

The second chapter provides the review of literature. The review of literature contains all the past studies carried out related to the study. The literature review contains the research which has been carried out in the research papers.

The third chapter provides the overview of the methods adopted during the research. It contains the information regarding the data collected, questionnaire, methods used for the research etc.
The fourth chapter covers the main portion of the study i.e. The Organization Change. This chapter provides us the information about reasons to change.

The fifth and sixth chapters contain the collection and interpretation of data. It also includes the analyses of data and their probable findings. The chapter sixth also includes the suggestions and also the conclusion of the study.

SAKSHI