ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Apart from one's efforts, the success of any research work depends largely on the encouragement and help given by many others. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the people who have been instrumental in the successful completion of this study.

I express my deepest gratitude to Dr. Sunil Sharma, for providing support, guidance and inspiration by novel ideas, to complete this research work. The vary genesis of this research work is exceptional courage and positivity shown by him during facing a health problem. This lead to a query in my mind that what factor others than, medical care, might have resulted in early recovery from the diseases. With the grace of almighty, his health is improving day by day and I pray for his long and healthy life. More than research work guide, he is my mentor in personal and professional life. I feel myself exceptionally lucky to work under his guidance.

I deeply indebted to Dr. R.L. Zinta, Chairperson, Department of Psychology, Himachal Pradesh University, for his valuable support and encouragement provide by him during the course of this research, whenever I felt discouraged.

No words of thanks can express my gratitude towards Dr. Randhir Ranta for willingly providing his time and expertise during the crucial time of the study. I usually call him 'Gurugi', and he has exactly done the same. I am also ve;y thankful to Mrs. Seema Ranta for care showered by her during the final stage of my research work.

I express my sincere gratitude to Prof. S N Ghosh, Dr Anita and Dr. Gyatri Raina, Mr. Ashwani, Mr. Hemraj and Mr.Chetram, Department of Psychology, Himachal Pradesh University for their valuable suggestions to complete this research work.

Grateful thanks are also due to the organizations and mangers who participated in this study by sharing their valuable time, without which the present study would not have seen the light of day.

No expression of gratitude would be sufficient without recognition, of the contribution of my father Mr. Mohan Lal Chandel, who is my ideal for living a value based and truthful life and my loving, caring and encouraging mother, Mrs. Bimla Chandel whose happiness is ultimate goal of my life. In fact, she was the one who took me to a saint, Baba Ram Eccha Ji for seeking his blessings, for my good academic career, during my childhood, when I was very unwilling to go to school. I take this opportunity to express my earnest gratitude to them.

I express my special appreciation for my wife Sarita, for her constant encouragement, support and never complaining nature about the lack of time spent together, due to my busy schedule in academics and professional life. I will try to make up for this, in future.

I would like to thank my dearest brother Yogesh and his wife seema, Govind, Sister Uma and her husband Mahender Hetta and their Kids Deksha and Saksham, Anjna and her husband Kalyan and their kids Ankit, Neha and Shivang, Gyatri and her husband Om Prakesh, Sharda and her husband Kalyan Thakur, Sister, Shyma, Kanta, Kalpana Sharma, uncles, Shivram Chandel, Sunder Lal Sharma, and their respective wife, Satya Chandel and Subdhra Sharma, for their care and support during the course of this study.

Last but not the least, I want to thank my kids Aditi, Samriti, Gargi, Aastha, and Dhruv for encouraging me with their genuine smiles and asking me again and again ‘Papa have you learnt your lesson?’

I wish to thank Mr. Daljit Singh who worked really hard to bring out the present shape of this study.

Finally I am deeply indebted the guiding hand of MAA DESHU, Baba Ram Eccha Ji and Baba Ghanshyam ji, who made all the things possible.
