ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I wish to thank the Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli for permitting me to do a research study on the temple of Thiruvilinathar at Thiruvillimandalai.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my guide Dr. A. Sivasankaran, M.A., Ph.D., retired Principal, Government College of Education, Orathanad for his scholarly and intelligible guidance and valuable suggestions given to me at every stage of the progress of my work. His profound knowledge in the subject of the history of Tamilnadu and his analytical bent of mind helped me in a large measure to structure my research.

I am greatly indebted to Dr. K. V. Ramesh, Director, Dept. of Epigraphy, Mysore and Kudavayil Balasubramanian, Preserver of Palm-leaf manuscripts, Saraswati Mahal Library, Thanjavur for the readiness with which they helped me with data besides enlightening me on certain aspects of the history of the temple.

I remember with gratitude the invaluable suggestions and words of encouragement Prof. Dr. K. Suryamurthy, Lecturer in History, Periyar E.V.R. College, Trichirappalli gave me whenever I sought his help in the collection of data and his arrangement in order.
I sincerely express my thanks to the Manager of this temple and the Managing Trustee for their kind gesture in furnishing necessary documentary evidences for the present administration. I cannot but remember with gratitude operation the Chief Priest of the temple had extended to me in my efforts to know the details of the daily rituals and festivals taking place in the temple and their religious significance to the community.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not place on record the invaluable and unforgettable help, by Thiru.Prof.V.Janakiraman, Lecturer (S.G.) in English for his unstinted help in all possible ways in the course of my preparation of the thesis.

My sincere thanks are due to Thiru.A.Thiagarajan, Megala Studio, Swamimalai, for taking neat photographs.
