ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This dissertation is made possible by the generous co-operation and sympathetic interest of many individuals to whom I wish to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude.

At the outset, my deepest gratitude is due to my research adviser and guide Dr. K. Seenivasagam, Joint Director of Collegiate Education (Finance), Chennai – 600 006 for having encouraged me in many ways for the completion of this thesis. His friendly attitude, sustained interest, invaluable advice for improvement, his meticulous correction of errors and his stylistic comments have always been the source of inspiration and encouragement for me. But for his guidance and constant gesture of hope, I could not have competed this dissertation.

I thank the authorities of Pachaiyappa’s College, Chennai – 600 030 for permitting me to do this research work in Bharathidasan University, Trichy through the PG and Research Department of Commerce, H.H. The Rajah’s College, Pudhukkotai.

I gratefully remember all my colleagues in the PG & Research Department of Commerce, Pachaiyappa’s College, Chennai – 30, for their unstinted support in this endeavour and especially Dr. V. Thyagarajan, Reader in Commerce for his constant encouragement and suggestions.
I also express my thanks to Dr. R.M. Thirumaran, Head of the Department of Bank Management, Pachaiyappa’s College, Chennai – 30, who has rendered all possible help in bringing out this dissertation.

My profound gratitude is due to my family well wishers Thiru. K. Desapandu, M.A., B.L., and Mrs. M. Jayakumari, M.A., B.Ed., for extending all help in getting the data and LIC information for my successful work.

Special mention should be made of Dr. S.V. Srinivasa Vallaban, Reader in Commerce, National College, Trichy and Dr. K. Sairam, Reader in English, Pachaiyappa’s College, Chennai-30, who have assisted me in collecting some of the research material.

More than anyone, my wife Mrs. Selvi Ganesan, receives my thanks for enduring my stressful behaviour during this programme. I gratefully remember my children who have rendered all possible help in this mission.

Finally, I owe my sincere thanks to the staff of the Student’s Xerox, Chennai – 600 040 for their excellent presentation of the typescript in book form.
