FIGURES

1. Status of enrolment and dropout rates in class IX-XII .......................... 26
2. Values of reliability coefficients for different dimensions of FCS .............. 70
3. Correlation Matrix of Family Climate Scale ........................................... 71
4. Indices of Reliability of PES ................................................................. 72
5. Statistical tests used and their purposes .................................................. 73
6. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to age and sex ............. 79
7. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to school type and sex .... 81
8. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to ordinal position and sex 84
9. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to family members and sex 85
10. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to income and sex .......... 86
11. Percentage distribution of adolescents according to family type and sex of adolescents ................................................................. 91
12. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents among Hindus ................................................................. 97
13. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents among students studying in private schools ..................................................... 100
14. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents among students studying in IX class ................................................................. 103
15. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with family members upto 5 ................................................................. 109
16. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with family income Rs. 20,000 – 40,000 per month ................................................................. 114
17. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with father’s education postgraduate and above ................................................................. 118
18. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with father’s education less than postgraduate ................................................................. 121 adolescents with education of mother postgraduate and above

19. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with father’s occupation as professional 127

20. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with mother’s occupation as working 129

21. Mean score of various family climates according to sex of adolescents with mother’s occupation as non-working 131