ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and foremost, I am thankful to the grace of GOD to undertake this research endeavour.

It’s not just a thesis, it’s a dream. There are many people responsible who have helped me to materialize this dream which now you can call a research. First and foremost, I propose my deepest sense of gratitude towards my mentor, philosopher and guide, Dr. P. K. Rathod, Professor, Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, who like a guardian blessed me with his guidance and assistance. He has been very kind to concentrate on my pitfalls and limitations which in turn helped me to overcome them and as a result of it, I came up with a genuine piece of research at least from my end. He was generous enough to lend me his precious time whenever I approached him throughout my tenure of research.

I am also indebted to Dr. S. K. Bhatt, Professor and Head, Department of Business Studies, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, whose constant motivation helped me move ahead in my work, and also all the faculties as well as office staff of Department of Business Studies who illuminated my path with their sheer experience and knowledge to show me the path and achieve my destination in terms of accomplishing this research work.

I am also thankful to the library of Department of Business Studies as well as Bhaikaka library of Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar.

I am glad to acknowledge the support of my friends Ina Raval, Dr. DhaVAL SHArMA and Bhargav Panchal who stood by me through thick and thin throughout the tenure of my research. I am also thankful to Dr. Sangita Prajapati, Project Fellow of SAP Programme Department of Business Studies for her assistance.
This thesis could not have come into existence without the love and support of my father Bhupatsinh L. Dabhi, mother Kailashben B. Dabhi, brother Sanjaysinh B. Dabhi and my nephew Dhruvrajsinh S. Dabhi deprived of whom I am what I am today.
