ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe a deep debt of gratitude to Dr. S.S. Chahal, my research supervisor, without whose invaluable guidance and encouragement, this work would not have been completed. I also express my sense of gratitude to Prof. L.N. Dahiya, Head, Department of Commerce, M.D. University, Rohtak and President of Indian Commerce Association, for providing me necessary facilities in the department to complete this work. My thanks are also due to other members of the department for their help and encouragement.

I take this opportunity to thank Professor Ishwar Singh, Department of Chemistry, M.D. University, Rohtak, who inspired me to do this research.

At various stages of my research work, I have received advice, comments, and/or specific information from various individuals. It would not be possible to mention all of them, yet a few names have been listed on the next page, to whom I express a great sense of gratitude.

I am highly thankful to Mr. Rajesh Kumar Dahiya, Programmar, Research and Statistics, Directorate of Income Tax, New Delhi, who provided me necessary data and publications for this research. I would like to thank Ms. Satya Kapoor, Librarian, Ministry of Finance, who permitted me to use the library. I am also obliged by the librarians; Delhi University, M.D. University, JNU, Indian Institute of Public Finance and Policy, and the office of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India.

My thanks also go to Ms. Monica Sharma of SIIT, Nanak Pura, New Delhi, for accurate computerised output of the manuscript and Ms. Vandana Sharma for statistical assistance.

Lastly, but not the least I express my heartfelt gratitude to my well wishers for their encouragement for the completion of this study in a record period of time.
