ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a pleasant duty for me to acknowledge my indebtedness to those persons for whose help the present work have been completed. At the very outset I acknowledge my gratefulness to Dr. G. Adhikary, Principal, D.K. Girls college Mirza, Kamrup Assam, who has kindly supervised the work despite his heavy academic and administrative workload. It was only Dr. Adhikary's encouragement and appreciation that led and inspired me to complete the work properly. Secondly, I acknowledge my indebtedness to all the authors whose works I have utilised in preparing my Thesis. I am particularly grateful to Mr. Deva Hazarika, Librarian, Sivasagar college, Sivasagar Assam, and Ms. Jyotika Barthakur, Librarian, SMD. College, Charing, Sivasagar Assam, for their kind help and cooperation in lending away necessary books to me. As well as thanks are due to the library staff of the D.K. Girls College, Mirza, who offered me their valuable help.

Besides, while collecting the research materials I had to approach many of the educational and research institutions, including the university of Gauhati, the Department of Historical and Antiquarian studies, Guwahati, Kamrup Anusandhan Samitee (Assam Research Society) Gauhati, and a number of expert individuals. I acknowledge my greatfulness to all these institutions and individuals.

I must offer my sincere regards to the faculties of the Department of History, Gauhati University for their valuable advice and suggestions in preparing the present work. I offer my thanks to the staffs of the Academic Branch (Ph.D. Section) Gauhati University, and Dr. Tapan Kalita of N.H. college Patacharkuchi, Barpeta. I also acknowledge the service of Sri Dipen Gohain of Graphica DTP Centre, Sivasagar for typing out the draft copy of my thesis. Thanks are also due to my wife Minu, two sons Don & Siki, who had encouraged me a lot in working out my Thesis.

Lastly I am very much grateful to the authority of the SMD College, Charing that shown me great sympathy by allowing and granting leave to me to persue this study. I have been largely indebted to them of this.
