ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I thank God, Almighty, for His historical involvements in guiding and shaping the destiny of people, in particular, bestowing me with abundant grace to add this tiny contribution to the gamut of knowledge.

I owe every aspect of the success and technical grandeur of the project to Dr. S.V. Kasmir Raja, the former HOD of the Department of Computer Science, St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirapalli who ably guided me all through the project. His intriguing questions, valuable suggestions, path-breaking solutions and timely interventions have led to diligent system design and meticulous deployment. Many of the refinements are the direct result of his invaluable and timely advice.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr. C. Xavier, HCL Technologies Ltd., Chennai for his directions and counsel that were pivotal in the development of this research work. Thanks to Dr. E. R Naganathan, Reader in Computer Science, Alagappa University for his valuable insights.

The commitment and motivating encouragement of the caring mentors and benevolent patrons of this sesquicentennial temple of learning, Rev. Fr. Rector and Rev. Fr. Secretary of St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirapalli have given me all the impetus required to forge ahead with this Herculean task. The former Principals, Rev. Dr. S. John Britto sj and Rev. Dr. A. G. Leonard sj have always been a refreshing source of inspiration to me in my research work.

At the outset, I express my heartfelt thanks to Rev. Dr. R. Rajarathinam sj, Principal, St. Joseph’s College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli, who has given me this precious opportunity to serve in this esteemed institution, and provided me with all necessary facilities to carry out my research work.

I wish to express my appreciation to Prof. D. S. Ravi, The Head and all the faculty members of the Computer Science Department, St. Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli for their encouragement in carrying out this research work.
I would like to thank Dr. K. Shanmugavadivel and Dr. G. Stephen Vincent, Department of Statistics, St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirapalli for their help in applying the statistical techniques in analysis of data.

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude towards the Director, Programmers and Technical Assistants of Cyber Centre and Ehrhart Computer Center, who helped me with their accustomed competence and dedication to bring this research to its fruition.

Special thanks are due to Dr. Janaki Ram, IIT, Chennai and to all members of Forum for Promotion of Software Engineering, India. I am grateful to Dr. S.P Rajagopalan, former Dean, Madras University, Chennai for his encouragement. Thanks are due to Dr. E.Kiribhakaran, Senior Manger, BHEL, Tiruchirapalli and to Prof. V. Natarajan, Department of Computer Science, Bishop Heber College(Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli. I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. M.Ponnavaiko, Director, Virtual Education and Research, SRM Deemed University, Chennai for all his encouragements.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr.K.Manikandan, Ms. D. Pooja, Ms.D.Rachel, Ms.A.Sankari, Ms.V.Kavitha, Ms. F. Merlin, Mr. S. Sudarsan and Danish Thomas T for their painstaking efforts in data entry. The Director and Librarian of St. Joseph’s College and the librarian of IIT Chennai Libraries need a special mention for the ever-smiling hospitality they accorded to me.

It fills me with great joy that I can think of this work as a true fruit of friendship and love. Thanks are due to all my friends and fellow researchers. I am drenched in the ardent support of my Father, Mother, my Wife, my son Brian and other beloved near and dear ones as I waded through the intricacies of this mind-boggling work.

Finally, I am indebted to all those who have been more specially and laboriously involved in the realization of this project.
