Contents

Chapter 1. Introduction
1.1. Introduction: Brief History of Assamese Cinema
1.2. Bhabendra Nath Saikia: The Filmmaker
1.3. Aims & Objectives of the Study
1.4. Review of literature
1.5. Theoretical Framework
1.6. Methods & Methodology
1.7. Overview of Chapters

Chapter 2. Representation of Women: Menaka’s Revenge, Kiron’s Negotiations and Other Schemes
2.1. Introduction Bhabendra Nath Saikia: The Filmmaker
2.2. Representation of Women in Cinema
2.3. Women in Assamese Cinema
2.4. Women in Bhabendra Nath Saikia’s Cinema

Chapter 3. From Sandhyarag to Itihaas: A Critical Trajectory of the Urban Life-world
3.1. Introduction
3.2. Urban Representation in Cinema
3.3. Urbanity through the Lens of Indian Cinema
3.4. Urbanity in Assamese Cinema
3.5. Urbanity in Bhabendra Nath Saikia’s Cinema

Chapter 4. Tracing the Elements of Cinema Proper: Cinematography, Sound and Editing
4.1. Introduction
4.2. Cinematography
4.3. Sound
4.4. Editing

Chapter 5. Visual Contents in the Frame: Mise-en-scènes of the Literary Filmmaker
5.1. Introduction
5.2. Setting
5.3. Costume and Make-up
5.4. Lighting
5.5. Acting

Chapter 6. Conclusion: Making Sense of the Auteur

References

Appendix 1: Filmography of Bhabendra Nath Saikia