ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

A major research work like this is never the work of anyone alone. This thesis would not have been possible without the guidance and the help of several individuals who in one way or another contributed and extended their valuable assistance in the preparation and completion of this study. I would like to extend my appreciation especially to the following.

Thank God for the wisdom and perseverance that he has been bestowed upon me during this research work, and indeed, throughout my life: "I can do everything through him who gives me strength." (Philippians 4: 13)

Dr. Pardeep Kumar Jain, Professor, Department of Management and Humanities, SLIET, Longowal, my research supervisor for making this research possible and his whose sincerity and encouragement I will never forget. His support, guidance, advice throughout the research work, concern and consideration as well as his pain-staking efforts is greatly appreciated. Indeed, without his guidance, I would not be able to put the topic together. I owe my special thanks to Dr. (Mrs.) Sarika Jain for her motivation.

I owe due gratitude to MDM officers at District level and Block levels of Sangur, Mansa and Barnala districts, all school Principals, Head Masters, Teachers, Students and their parents to help me in data collection. I thankfully acknowledge the contributions of my colleagues, Ms. Ramandeep Kaur Sidhu, Dr. Lalit Singla and Dr. Harshvineet Kaur for their support in making this thesis a success.
I would like to thank my family especially my parents, Mr. Darshan Kumar and Mrs. Satya Devi for their unconditional support, my brother Sikander Garg and sister Veerpal Bansal for helping me in data collection. I admire the love and affection given by my younger brother, Manoj Garg during the tough phase of my life. I am especially thankful to my husband, Mr Vikas Goyal, who is my strength. His motivation, patience and support facilitated me to write this thesis. My son, Vansh, deserves special love and thanks for showing his patience during the research work.
