ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My research was a pilgrimage to the holy land of Gandhigram, hallowed by the venerable memory of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. As it is an experience with every pilgrimage, my journey was also an arduous task, encountering obstacles, treading on difficult path and discovering new areas of knowledge. As I come to the fag end of my journey, my mind is filled with mixed feelings of gratitude and indebtedness for the clear directions from different personalities, erudite scholars, Gandhian thinkers, top ranking historians and my own well-wishers without whose help this thesis could not have reached its completion.

I offer my gratitude to Dr. S. Narayanasamy, Professor, Department of Gandhian Thought and Peace Science, who is my research supervisor in the Gandhigram Rural University, Gandhigram, Dindigul. His unstinted support enabled me to complete the work within the stipulated period.

I am equally grateful to my joint supervisor of this doctoral work, Dr. S. Ramachandran Nair, former Professor and Head, Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady, Kerala for his valuable assistance and helpful criticism in carrying out the research. The corrections, meticulous suggestions and additions offered by him were indeed extremely valuable.
On the eve of submission of the thesis, I gratefully remember the authorities of Gandhigram Rural University who initiated me into the world of research in history coupled with Gandhian Studies.

I hereby place on record my sincere thanks from the bottom of the heart to the authorities of the University Grants Commission, New Delhi and the University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram for permitting me to undertake the doctoral research under the Faculty Improvement Programme

My sincere gratitude is due to the Secretary, Travancore Devaswom Board, Thiruvananthapuram and other office bearers of the Travancore Devaswom Board management for having permitted me to pursue my doctoral research in the Department of Gandhian Thought and Peace Science, Gandhigram Rural University, Gandhigram, Dindigul.
