ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of any work is a long and arduous process which can't achieve fruition without the help of many people serving in different roles. My debts are far too numerous to acknowledge them completely. But, there are a number of persons whose direct and indirect contributions can't go unmentioned.

I am deeply indebted to my esteemed Supervisor and guide Prof. (Dr.) Pradip Kumar Sarkar whose scholarly and affectionate guidance helped me in completing this work. It is said that if the guide is cooperative, half of the work is over. I am fortunate enough to pursue my Ph.D. work under the guidance of my great teacher who behaves like a friend, commands like an elder brother and extracts the best in us like a coach.

I am grateful to Dr. Prafulla Chandra Mishra, H.O.D. of P.G. Deptt. of Law, Utkal University for allowing me to conduct my research in the P.G. Department of Law, Utkal University. I too acknowledge the encouragement that I received from Madam Indira Panda, Sri Durgesh Ch. Mohapatra, Sri Kulamani Jena, Dr. R.N. Pattanaik and Dr. Sudhansu Pattnaik, the faculty members of P.G. Department of Law during my research programme. I am thankful to Rabin Babu, Gadadhar Babu, Rabi, Manua, Susanta and Ranka for the help and assistance tendered by them in their respective capacities.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, for providing me fellowship in the form of financial assistance without which this research work would not have been conducted at all. I am also indebted to the Vice-Chancellor, the Director Students Welfare and his staffs including Bijoy Babu for allowing me to conduct my research under Utkal University.

While recording my gratitude to the leading Libraries of Bhubaneswar and New Delhi, I find it a privilege to mention the help that I received from the Library Staff-members of Orissa Legislative Assembly Library, the Secretary and the Law Officer of the Assembly, the Chief Librarian of the Parliament Library, the Secretary of Vidhan Sabha, Lucknow and more particularly to the staffs of the Research and Reference wings of Orissa Legislative Assembly as well as the Parliament Library whose laborious documentation work is commendable. I also feel excited to mention the name of my father who has provided me lots of study material from his chamber library including the All India Reporters.

I am truly grateful to my teacher and Principal of D.S. Law College, Sri D.K. Mishra, his colleagues and staffs and also the revered President of the Governing body Sri Bhagabat Prasad Mohanty for providing me study leave to conduct my research work.

I will fail in my duty if I do not acknowledge the help and suggestions which I received from my friends-Pratap, Sibu, Tutu, Manau, Jitu, Manoj, Babuli, Kunja Bhai and Alok. However, the main source of my inspiration has been my family particularly my parents and wife who are very keen to see the completed work.

Jyoti, I must applause you for inspiring and assisting me all throughout for completing this work which has now achieved its fruition.

Sanmamu, thank you very much for your help in all fronts during my stay at Delhi for which I could obtain the Parliament entry pass and also visit many libraries of Delhi. Infact, you remain an ideal for me always.

I am really indebted to Sarbashree (Dr.) Subash C. Kashyap, Madhu Limaye, (Dr.) B.K. Pattnaik, Inder Jit and other authorities on this topic whose scholarly writings since 1960s have helped me in the realisation of my goal.

I too appreciate the labour given by the Rath brothers of Rath Documentation Centre, Jayadev Vihar, Bhubaneswar in typing my work and giving me the lazer printouts in record time.
