ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I must express my sincere thanks first and foremost to my guide Professor Shirin Kudchekar.

Her patient critical approach to the work, and repeated careful reading of every aspect of the work has been of invaluable assistance to me. I am indebted to her for such guidance offered to me at every stage of my work.

My sincere thanks to those friends who have helped me in procuring material on the Spanish Civil War and translating it, as well as providing first-hand information on the war.

I must then thank my mother and my brother who encouraged me to take up this research work, also my sister and sister-in-law who have helped me in various ways.

A special word of thanks to my husband whose help and co-operation has gone a long way towards the completion of this work.

Lastly I must thank all the staff of the S.N.D.T. Women's University Library, the staff of the Bombay University Library, my typist, Shri Ubhare, and all others who have helped to make this endeavour successful.

***