Acknowledgment

First, I would like to thank to my supervisor Dr. Asha Sarangi for her friendly guidance in the course of writing Thesis. Without her constant support, critical comments and suggestions it would have not been possible to complete the Thesis. I am also indebted for her timely reminding for my work, sharing her thoughts and reading materials. My special thanks to all those families who have lost their near and dear and responded during my field visit. I am also thankful to the centre and all the faculty members who directly or indirectly shaped my understanding and personality, especially, Prof. Gopal Guru, Prof. Valerian Rodriguez, Dr. T.G Suresh, Dr. Pralay Kanungo and Dr. Ajay Gudavarthy. In addition, my heart felt thanks to Prof. Hara Gopal, Prof. G. Krishna Reddy (OU) and Dr. K.Y. Ratnam (UOH), Prof. K. Srinivasulu (OU) and Dr. B. Bhangya (EFL-U), for providing valuable information. I am also thankful to M. Raghavachary, member Palamuru Adhyayana Vedika, Mahabubnagar, and N. Venugopal, Editor, Veekshanam (Telugu Political Economy Monthly) for helping me by sharing materials. My special thanks to the RTI activist Rakesh Reddy Dubbudu and G. Koteshwar Rao for providing me the crucial data on number of suicides.

I am also indebted to the staff members of Centre’s Library (SAP), JNU Central Library, Teen Murthy Library, New Delhi, Indira Gandhi Memorial Library, University of Hyderabad and National Institute of Rural Development (NIRD) Hyderabad, for providing sufficient reading materials for finishing this study. I am also grateful to all my friends who helped me during the course of writing the chapters. Specially, Sujana, Chandraiah, Suresh, Natbar, Anjaiah, Ramaroa, Brahma, Laxman, Sudhakara, Satya, Syam, Naresh, Vijay, Prashant, Santosh, Abbas, Jubilee, Ramesh….Moreover, heartfelt thanks to all my classmates without whom the life would have been colorless. I am also grateful to my family members, especially, my father V.S Nayak who always stood behind me with his affection and love, my brothers Gopal, my sister Anjali who is always supportive in needs, and also to my little brother Vidya Charan, my cousin brother Ravi, Raju and K. Kishor for being always with me, and I am also grateful to my sister Anjali, and my uncle Prasad and Raju. My special thanks to Shailu for promising to be with me.

Venkatesh (V. Venkatesh Nayak)
