ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with great pleasure that I acknowledge my sincere gratitude and indebtedness to my supervisor, Dr. Lahmasai Chuaungo, Associate Professor, Department of Education, Mizoram University, Aizawl for her invaluable guidance, constant encouragement and assistance provided to me during my research work. Her sincere advice and sympathetic understanding of my limitations has made it possible to bring this thesis in its present form.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to the Regional Director, Assistant Director, the Librarian and staff of IGNOU Regional Centre Aizawl, Mizoram for allowing me to utilise their books and other materials. I also thank them for rendering me their valuable suggestions and advice for my present study.

Further, I would like to offer my gratitude to the authorities at the college and the government level who granted me study leave as well as for giving me financial assistance for my research works. My heartfelt and sincere thanks are also due to the Co-ordinators, staff and learners in the sample Study Centres under IGNOU, Regional Centre, Aizawl and Accredited Institutions under NIOS, Regional Centre, Guwahati, for their enthusiastic cooperation and warm responses to the questions put to them.

Finally, I expressed my special gratitude to my family members who gave me time and moral support throughout my study.
