ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I record a profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor Professor Pankaj K. Singh, Chairperson, Department of English, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for her valuable guidance, inspiration and meticulous suggestions throughout the course of the dissertation. Besides, from her I also learned to be diligent, humble and unpretentious for which I shall ever remain indebted to her.

I am also grateful to Prof. Arun Mukherjee, Associate Professor, Department of English, York University, Toronto for procuring some of the primary sources from Canada, and to Professor O. P. Juneja for the help extended to me in locating various secondary sources.

I owe a considerable debt to Dr. Meenakshi F. Paul, Senior Lecturer in English, Himachal Pradesh University, Centre for Evening Studies, Shimla for her valuable suggestions in the final stages of the thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Dr (Mrs) Girija Sharma, Associate Professor of English and Dr. Abha Malhotra, Associate Professor of History, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their concern. My gratitude is also due to Dr Mita Biswas, Prof. Usha Pathania, Dr (Mrs) Vijay Sharma and Mrs Anupama Singh, ICDEOL, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their interest in my work.

I am also indebted to the staff of Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute, New Delhi and M. S. University, Baroda, for allowing me to make use of their libraries.

My sincere thanks to Shri Nand Lal Verma for typing and final printing of the dissertation.
I am also grateful to my brother-in-law, father-in-law and especially my mother-in-law for their constant support and encouragement during the course of this work.

My special thanks to my friend and my husband Vinay Mohan Sharma without whose co-operation and understanding it would have been difficult to complete the work.

Last, but not the least, I would like to thank my brother and my mother, especially my mother who struggled all by herself so that I could become something in life. Without her sacrifices this thesis was not possible at all. I thank her for her inspiration, her encouragement, her faith in me and above all, for her unconditional love.
