ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Dr. S.S. Rana my Guide, Philosopher and Friend helped me in this work from beginning to end.

Therefore, I express my profound and sincere thanks to Dr. S.S. Rana, for all the inspiration, encouragement and supervision for the completion of this research work. I found him always with very open mind, ready to help me even at odd hours to his inconvenience.

I owe my deep indebtedness to many but especially to:
Professor Lokesh Koul, Head, Department of Education and Dean: Faculty of Education, Himachal Pradesh University for the most needed and readily available assistance in the collection of data and other information relevant to this study,

Dr. S.S. Chauhan, Associate Professor for his valuable suggestions to make this academic pursuit more useful and meaningful,

Other teachers of the University and my friends especially Sh. K.C. Gupta, Surveyor Instructor, for the encouragement they have given from time to time, and Various Officers and Officials of the Boards of School Education in the country, Heads of Institutions at different places for their cooperation and to the persons who sent their responses to the questionnaire and opinionnaire.

I also acknowledge the contribution of different authors and editors of books, journals, research papers, magazines and newspapers which the researcher has consulted.
without their consent to collect relevant data and information. My sincere thanks are due to the staff of Libraries of Himachal Pradesh University, Himachal Pradesh Secretariat, Vidhan Sabha, Department of Economics and Statistics, Education, Public Relations, Punjab and Central Board, and N.C.E.R.T for their co-operation.

Sh. B.S.Chandel and Sh. Ashok Kumar also deserve my hearty thanks for doing the type work neatly, accurately and efficiently.

Last of all I also dutifully express my gratitude and happiness to my wife Smt. Preet Sharma, who kept me quite free from domestic worries during the completion of this research work.

Shimla-5
September 27, 1985

(OM PARKASH SHARMA)