ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take the privilege to express my deep and profound sense of gratitude toward my esteemed supervisor, Professor O.P. Kandari, Vice Chancellor, Bundelkhand University, Jhansi, without whose invaluable guidance, co-operation and blessings, the present piece of research would not have been completed. Prof. Kandari has been a friend, philosopher and guide to me and I owe a deep debt of gratefulness to him for his scholarly guidance and his invaluable help in writing this thesis.

My sincere thanks to Dr. S.K. Kabia, Dr. Punit Gautam, and Mr. Sanjay Nibhoria. without their help I would have been like a rudderless ship without and destination. It would have been difficult to find the way in the vast ocean of knowledge. I owe my gratitude to Mahraj Jai Singhji, Chairman, FICCI, Rajasthan State Council and Dr K L Jain, Hony. Secretary General, RCCI, Jaipur, who had been my mentors and extended their sustained support and encouragement from time to time.

I wish to express my earnest appreciation to the Department of Tourism, Government of Rajasthan, RTDC, Department of Archaeology & Museum, Department of Statistics, FICCI, CII, all the entrepreneurs and Market Research Division of Ministry of Tourism, Govt. of India, for readily providing the requisite data and facts on various perspectives of Hospitality and Tourism industry of Rajasthan.

Others who helped me indirectly are my mother Smt. Deomati Singh who always inspired me to work hard. I am no less grateful to my wife Smt. Reshu who could put up with the vagaries of my temperament which is so natural for a researcher and also encouraged me with a cheer and smile. No less inspiring me was the prattle of my son Mr. Rishabh who despite his tender age was a source of comfort and cheer to me. I am also indebted to several others but paucity of space prevents me from acknowledging their help separately. At the end, I must confess that whereas I owe a debt of gratitude to several friends and scholars, I am alone responsible for the shortcomings of my work for which I seek the indulgence of avid readers.
