It has been a proud privilege for me to have worked on this study under the able guidance of Prof. A.N. Srivastava, M.D.(Hons.), D.P.H., D.I.H., F.I.P.H.A., F.A.M.S., F.I.S.C.D., F.N.I.E., F.A.I.P.H. & H (London); Professor and Head of the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.). I find it difficult to express adequately in words my deep sense of gratitude for his painstaking vigilant supervision, paternal guidance, affection and help. His dynamism and optimism have given me the much needed moral strength and determination for conducting the present study. A debt like this can hardly be paid off in words.

I am greatly indebted to my Co-Supervisor Sri B.L. Verma, F.A.(Stat.), Statistician cum Lecturer in the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.), who has given his valuable time in solving my problems inspite of his utmost busy routine. Without his help, it would not have been possible for me to complete this work.

I am highly thankful to Dr. M. Saran, M.D., M.O.M. cum Lecturer in the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.)
for his kind encouragement and detailed and meticulous interest in steadily steering, moulding and guiding my research work. I can not forget his valuable constructive criticism which did a lot in improving the quality of the work.

Dr. Arun Kumar, M.D., Reader in the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.) provided all the necessary facilities for conducting the present study and offered valuable suggestions, whenever required. I wish to record my grateful thanks to him.

I can not forget the welcoming attitude of Dr. R.K. Gupta, M.D., Reader in the Department of Pathology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.), to solve my problems, whenever I consulted him for any help.
I am highly thankful to him.

I am very much thankful to Dr. Jyoti Prakash, M.B., Lecturer in the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi (U.P.) who has given me constant encouragement to pursue this study.

I also record a deep sense of gratitude to Dr. V.M. Gupta, M.D., Reader in the Department of Preventive and Social Medicine, Institute of Medical Sciences, B.N.U., Varanasi, who permitted me to consult the literature available with him as well as provided valuable guidance.
I thank to Dr. K.I.A. Siddique, M.O. I/c. Primary Health Centre, Kochhabhamwar, (at present, Epidemiologist, W.H.O. Research Project) for providing me all the necessary help for conducting the present study. I am also thankful to all the Auxiliary Nurse and Midwives, Health Visitors and Family Welfare Workers of the study area for their kind cooperation in conducting the survey.

My sincere thanks are due to my colleagues Dr. A.J. Singh, Dr. J.P. Singh and Dr. A.K. Tripathi, for their kind help in preparing the manuscript. I am also thankful to all the staff members of the Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, especially to Mrs. A. Joseph, Lab. Technician, for providing me their cooperation and help.

I shall be failing in my duties if I do not express my sincere thanks to my wife Dr. Geeta Shukla and my younger brother Vinay Kumar Shukla, who have been a constant source of help at all stages of my work.

My thanks are also due to the subjects of my study, to whom I have given a lot of trouble by carrying out detailed investigations especially, blood examination.

Before I close, I must thank Sri K.M. Thomas who has skilfully performed the tiring task of preparing clean and flawless transcripts.
