ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all I want to express my thanks to the almighty God for blessing me to complete this study. Much of the work in preparing this thesis was possible because of the inspiration, help and courtesy shown to me by many well-wishers, scholars and institutions. I take the opportunity to acknowledge the debt I owe to them.

I would like to record my sense of gratitude to Honorable Dr. Patangrao Kadam, Chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Pune; Dr. Shivajirao Kadam, Vice Chancellor, Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Pune; Dr. G. Jaykumar, Registrar, Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Pune and Dr. K. D. Jadhav, Principal, Yashwantrao Mohite College, Pune for making me available the required facilities.

I would like to express my special appreciation and thanks to my advisor Professor Dr. Rankhambe, you have been a tremendous mentor for me. I would like to thank you for encouraging my research. Your advice on both research as well as on my career have been priceless. Your perceptive comments, prudent observations and painstaking efforts to improve the quality of my work, in spite of your busy schedule, have been of immense help in my work. This formal acknowledgement is an inadequate expression of my gratitude to him. I am ever indebted to him.

I am grateful to Dr. R. S. Zirange; Head, Postgraduate of English, Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Yashwantrao Mohite College, Pune.

I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to my father Dr. Mohammad Reza Taheri. Indeed, I shall ever remain indebted to him for his valuable intellectual and financial assistance during the time of my study in India. He has left behind a legacy of values and principles has spread over the lives of my family without whose reference this informal acknowledgement was certainly be incomplete. Let me salute him for the excellence for which he was known. He is a man who associated himself with several disciplines and branches of knowledge for whom standing at the confluence of various sources of philosophy was equal to visiting a place of pilgrimage. It is he who had sowed the seed of research spirit and left forever but for all these five years and even the years to come, I believe, he will be with me and my family.

I would like to express my great appreciation to my mother Mrs. Homa Taheri who without her continuous support and encouragement I never would have been able to achieve my goals. I am also grateful to my wife Dr. Razieh Goldarzehi, for her outstanding display of patience and understanding of unsociable hours I spent working at home on my thesis. Her love, company, support and also criticism sustained me throughout this work, I am indeed thankful to my lovely sons, Aria and Arad whom sweet words and self-denying patience encouraged me to work on this thesis with more strength. I am also indebted to my brothers Dr. Ahmad Reza, Dr. Omid Reza, Mr. Ahsan, my dear Sister Mrs. Afsaneh, my mother-in-law, Fatemeh Taheri, sister-in-laws and specially my brother in law Dr. Khalilalrahman Dehvari for their support which allowed me to complete this research. They have sacrificed in various forms and would be occupied a permanent place in my heart and thanks for everything they did through the period full of thick and thin.

I am also thankful to the colleagues in the Department of English; Dr. Pankaj Bhanudas Vaishnav, Mr. Meharaj Shaikh, Mr. Prashant Dharmadhikari as well as the staff of Bharati Vidyapeeth University, Yashwantrao Mohite College, Pune. I wish to place on record my thanks to the staff of Y. M. College for their help as and when required.

If by some mischance, I have failed to acknowledge where I should have done so, I hope those concerned will accept my sincere apologies.

Amir Mohammad Reza Taheri
