ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I thank God Almighty for enabling me to submit this thesis to the University of Kerala, for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Music.

I am deeply indebted to my respected Research Guide and Supervising Teacher, Dr. S. BHAGYALEKSHMY. M.A., Ph.D., Asst. Editor (Retd), State Institute of Children’s Literature, Thiruvananthapuram, who supported, encouraged and co-operated with me whole heartedly to complete this difficult task. I am also grateful to all the members of her family, for the affection, encouragement and blessings showered on me.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to late Sri. L.S Rajagopal for inspiring me to take this topic and providing lot of materials to proceed the work.

I extend my sincere thanks and gratitude to Padma Sree Peruvanam Kuttan Marar for devoting his precious time to make me understand the nuances of Paanikottal and Melams.

My humble gratitude to Late Aliparambu Sivaramapoduval, Sri Janardanan Nedungadi, Nelluvai Krishnankutty Marar for providing me informations about Sopana Sangeetham and Mecheri Vasudevan Namboothiri who co-operated with me to record some of the Padams of Krishnattam.

I have no words to express my sincere gratitude to Prof. T.N. Vasudevan, T.N. Raman and T. N. Krishnan for sharing with me the musical as well as ritualistic aspect of Theyyattupaattu.
I am grateful Kallattu Ravunni Kuruppu and his son Kallattu Rajan Kuruppu for providing me valuable information about different varieties of Kalam Paattu.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the authorities of the University of Kerala, who gave me sanction for doing research. I wish to thank the staff of all the Administrative sections of the University, especially the Academic wing, Department of Music and all others who have helped me.

I extend my sincere thanks and gratitude to the Librarian, Deputy Librarians, and all the staff of the Kerala University Library, the centre of my research study, for providing me all the facilities for my convenient study.

I am greatly indebted to Mr. Manu M.R and his family for supporting me in the final phase of this work. Without their support and help, it would have been impossible for me to complete this thesis successfully.

I am thankful to the staff of Online City Kattakada who did the DTP work with utmost care and perfection on time.

Last but not least, I extend my sincere thanks to family members, mother Mrs. Medini Madhusudanan, aunt Dr. A. Jalaja Varma, husband, Dr. M.S. Parameswaran, sister Joti Verma, my in laws and my daughter Parvathy for constantly supporting and encouraging me to fulfill this work successfully.
