BIBLIOGRAPHY
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Census of India (1981). Report and Tables bases and 5 percent sample Data, series 1 -India, part II special 1981 b primary census abstract general population, series I

-India, Part-II B(i) 1981 c.

General Population Tables and primary census abstracts, series, 17 Punjab, Part IIA and Part IIB.

Chouhan, D, and Kamdar, S (1997). Social Sector and development : Focus on Dietary studies of children from a biracial population : intakes of Gopalan ,G.,(1989). Nutritive value of Indian foods, Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) publication.

Nutrition society of India NIN, 11(10) : 18-47.

Khan, M.E., Personal communication, Baroda Operational Research group.

gingiva status in school children aged 7 to 14 from Plovdiv Folia Med (Plovdiv), 36 (1) : 63-8.

Manual for the bacteriological examination of water sample, prepared for the reorientation training course conducted for bacteriologists from DPHLS, at regional public health laboratory, Nagpur. : 25.

Sinha , A.K., (1994). Observation of nutritional profile of primary school children in Turstonn, L.L. & Chave E.J., (1929). The measurement of attitude. Chicago University, Chicago press.

UNICEF Report (1990). The girl child in India (This article is a reproduction with the observation kit published by UNICEF in connection with the observance of 1990 as the year of the girl child) Nirnay, 5 : 35-52.

slum. Indian Pediatr., 31 (2) : 127-32.

WHO's Global Commission meeting in Geneva April 1994 WHO Press Release

WHO/31, 13-4-94.

World Bank PHNFLASH, issue 71, 24.5.95, Nutrition and early child development into the year 2020.

Sozialund-Preventivmedizin, 38 (4): 251-252.