ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to express my heart-felt thanks to Professor C.L.L. Jayaprada, my research guide, for her encouragement, close guidance and much support throughout the study.

I am also indebted to Professor J. L. Narayana of Statistics Department of Andhra University who generously devoted his time to this research by giving his critical and directive comments which contributed to shape questionnaires and do statistical analysis.

I am also indebted to College of Arts and Commerce of Andhra University, Department of English particularly head of the English Department Prof. T. Narayana, Board of Studies chair person Prof. S.Prasanna Sree and Doctoral Committee member Prof. B. Parvathi, and for facilitating my scholarly work from the very beginning up to the end of the program.

My special thanks also go to the Ethiopian government, Ministry of Education for financing the Ph D. Scholarship, and staff of the Ethiopian Embassy to India for their support in facilitating conditions to pursue my education at Andhra University.

I wish to extend my respect and gratitude to Amhara National Regional State Education Bureau in delivering information about VISs’ enrolment; English language teachers, visually impaired students, and school directors in the target schools for their collaboration in giving all information pertinent to the research. Without their help this research would have been impossible.

I have a deep appreciation to my colleagues, working at Bahir Dar University, Associate Professor Reda Darge, Dr. Amare Sahile, Dr. Mulugeta Teka and assistance Professor
Amera Seifu who were critiquing and commenting while the research was underway. I am also grateful to those whose names were not mentioned here but who have given me moral and material support with encouragement.

Finally, I would like to forward my special admiration and appreciation to my family and parents, specially my wife Alemitu Desalegn, my children Bisrat Kassie, Bethlehem Kassie and Tewobstya Kassie who sacrificed a lot and gave me love, care, and encouragement to achieve my goal. Fiseha Desalegn’s contribution was also remarkable as he was the one who created an access to get journals and e-books pertinent to the area under study.
