ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the outset, I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Y.R. Haragopal Reddy, Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, Nagarjuna University, for guiding me through out the period of this work with constant interest. I am immensely benefited by his inspiration, encouragement and valuable suggestions. I consider it as most fortunate to have worked under him for my doctoral thesis.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Prof. D. Vijayanarayana Reddy, Dean Faculty of Law, Nagarjuna University, Prof. N. Rangaiah, Faculty of Law, Nagarjuna University, Prof. N.L. Mitra, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, Prof. Cotino, Faculty of Law, University of Bangalore, Prof. Rajan Vargheese, National Labour Institute, Noida, and to Dr. A. Narsing Rao, Principal, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Law College, Hyderabad for their encouragement and valuable suggestions in the completion of the thesis.

I am indebted to Swami Agnivesh, President, Bandhua Mukti Morcha, Kailash Sathyarthi, who is actively working for child labour liberation movement, Ms. Meena Gupta, Director of Child Labour Project, ILO, Indian Office, New Delhi, Ms. Nandana Reddy, Chairperson, the Concerned for Working Children, Bangalore for their kind cooperation, valuable suggestions and inspiration to complete this work.

Thanks are due to Mr. G. Venkat Rao, Social Activist and to Ms. Suneeta, Social Worker for extending all possible help in the collection of data from the study area.

Thanks are due to the officials of the Directorate of Mines and Minerals, Hyderabad, the Deputy Director of Mines and Geology office, Guntur, Deputy Commissioner of Labour (Central) offices at Hyderabad and Vijayawada, Labour safety office, Gudur, Regional Factories Inspector office, Guntur, Factories Inspector office, Ongole, Commissioner of Labour (State) offices at Hyderabad, Guntur, Assistant Labour Officer, Markapur, Directorate of Census Operations, Hyderabad, Child Labour Cell, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, ILO Office, New Delhi, UNICEF office, New Delhi and Hyderabad and to the MRO’s of the selected Mandals for extending their cooperation in the collection of relevant material from their respective departments.
Thanks are due to the staff members and to the librarians of Nagarjuna University, Delhi University, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Indian Social Institute, New Delhi and Bangalore, National Labour Institute Noida, the American Centre library, Madras, the Concerned for Working Children, Bangalore, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, Indian Institute of Social and Economic change, Bangalore, United Nations Depository, Osmania University, Hyderabad for their co-operation.

Thanks are due to Ms. Vijayalakshmi, Ms. Anuradha, Ms. Geeta, Law students, Ms. Anitha, Ms. Julie and Ms. Padmaja social activists, who have untiringly helped me in comparing the typed text with the manuscript.

Last but not the least, thanks are due to Mr. M.R.K. Rao, Director and Mr. N. Raju, Computer Operator, Data Dynamics, Narsyanguda Hyderabad, for computing the entire thesis patiently and efficiently with in stipulated time.

Y. Vishnu Priya