"Gratitude is not a thing of expression, it is more a matter of feeling". This is, and has been, my feeling, but my heart throbs me to admit that I shall be shirking my duty in case I do not express my gratitude to my revered teacher and guide, Professor and Head Dr. S.K. Gupta, Department of History, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla Under whose invaluable guidance the present project has been completed. Without his indulgence, intellectual eminence and preserving attention the completion of this project would never have been possible.

I pay my sincere and heartiest thanks to the teachers of the Department of History.

Without the love and inspiration of my family members, this project would not have been possible.
I am also thankful to Mr. R.K. Gupta for arduous typing which made the timeliness possible.

Last, but not the least, important are my kids and husband who were always helpful enough to extend their timely Co-operation and who were neglected to a great extent owing to my pre-occupation with the project. I pay my highest regards to my father-in-law Mr. Gyan Chand Bansal, who is no more today to see his this dream came true, and my loved brother Ashok Gupta who is also no more, to see this project.
