ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At very first opportunity, out of profound sense of indebtedness, I take immense pride to heartily acknowledge my esteemed guide and Supervisor Prof. Suresh Kapur, Dean and Chairman Department of Laws, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla under whose learned and scholarly guidance the present study has been completed. He has a flair for study and research. He has always been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to me. Without his scholarly guidance, sympathetic and encouraging attitude it would not have been possible for me to complete this study. I cannot express in words the tireless efforts he put in polishing and enriching this work. Despite his busy schedule, he always remained very kind to make himself available in most human, inspiring and cooperative manner.

It also gives me immense pleasure and a sense of gratitude to acknowledge my indebtedness to Dr. Kamal Jeet Singh. His necessary contribution at appropriate places make the work more analytical.

I shall ever remain thankful to Prof. O. P. Monga, Chairman, Department of Sociology for his constructive and considerable behaviour.

I cannot forget to write that it was only the sacrifice, blessings, love, affection, patience and moral support of my parents that I could ever think of doing this work. It seems very difficult to express my deep sense of gratitude to my uncle Mr. R. D. Sindhu and my younger brother Mr. Rajiv Sindhu for their valuable cooperation and consistent encouragement.

It would be an anathema if I do not thank my wife Mrs. Laxmi, who has helped me at every stage of this work. God may not forgive me if I do not admit that the only relaxed moments during the course of this study were when my little sweet son 'Shubham' came into my lap asking me not to worry about anything.

Thanks are also due for kind cooperation of Mr. B. R. Bhardwaj, Incharge, Law Library, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla - 5 and his staff members Mr. Rajinder Thakur, Mr. Rameshwar Thakur, Mr. Virender Sharma and Mr. Vinod Sharma.
