"Feeling gratitude and not expressing it is like wrapping a present and not giving it."

Any aspiration or ambition requires His Grace, Blessings and will, to accomplish that particular task, and an opportunity to achieve that cherished goal and above all a mentor to provide necessary guidance for the practical aspect of the matter. In this sense I am highly indebted and thankful to The Almighty for His grace and showering of fortune and blessings.

I owe my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. R.C. Kondle, Director JCOEOL, Department of Commerce, Himachal Pradesh University Shimla, for his invaluable guidance, inspiration and meticulous suggestions throughout the course of this dissertation. This dissertation would not have been possible without his painstaking efforts in directing me towards academic excellence. Besides dissertation, I also learnt time management from him, a rational approach to subject and moreover to be diligent, humble and sincere for which I shall ever remain indebted to him.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. Kul Bhushan Chandel, Chairperson, Department of Commerce, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for providing the necessary facilities in the department. I also record my heartfelt gratitude and regards to all the faculty members for their constant help and encouragement.

I am sincerely thankful to the librarians and staff of Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla and Ratan Tata Library, Delhi University.

My special thanks to Prof. D. R. Saklani, Prof. Kulwant Singh Pathania, Dr. M.C. Sharma, Dr. Vijay Kumar Sharma, Dr. Harbans Sharma, Dr. Rajinder Sharma, Dr. O.P. Verma and Dr. Vinod Rangra for their constant support, co-operation and inspiration to complete my thesis with zest and determination. I would like to thank my seniors especially Dr. Nand Lal Thakur, Mr. Mohinder Paul, Dr. Rajeev, Dr. Uma Sharma and Dr. Saroj Devi for extending their help whenever I needed.

"Friends are special people we carry in our heart wherever we go in our life". I am heartily thankful to all my friends who have shown their concerns to my thesis especially Dr. Aarti Mangesh, Siddheshwar Yambur, Jeevan Lata, Jyoti Prashar, Renu Bala, Anil Kumar, Surjeet Chaudhary and Vandana Sharma who were always there for me and always been tender and cordial and who supplied their generous views on my work. I convey my gratitude to all those who have, directly or indirectly, contributed to the journey of my academic success. I am also thankful to my cousins and all other relatives for their significant contribution in all spheres of my life.

No expression of appreciation is complete without recognition of the prayers, good wishes and valuable support of my affectionate parents Mr. Mannmohan Singh Thakur and Mrs. Draavaan Devi which helped me immensely to achieve my goal. Words are insufficient to express my lifelong indebtedness to them for whom I am everything and whose tender care held my spirits high. I deeply express my gratitude to my younger brothers Praveen, Pradeep and sister-in-law (Bhabhi) Mrs. Rekha for their everlasting encouragement. How can I forget the name of little angel (my loving niece) Pranvi on this occasion who has come in our family as a new source of bliss and delight!
