Acknowledgements

It is a matter of great pleasure to all the owner able persons who helped and inspired me in the completion of this research work. Words often fail to express one’s inner feelings of indebtedness to one’s benefactors. It will be unkind of me if I do not mention the names of all those persons who constantly helped me.

So first of all, I am grateful to God for guiding me every step of the way throughout the period of the current study and indeed throughout life. I am grateful because this life is wonderful, and God’s care and concern has seen me through the ups and downs in life. His love and care cannot be described in words.

I owe the debt of gratitude to my Research Guide Dr. Nain Singh, Associate Professor, Department of Education, H.P. University, Shimla for his praiseworthy guidance, invaluable suggestions, constructive criticism, never ending encouragement and supervision throughout the tenure of my study. His whole hearted co-operation and ingredient inspiration from the inception to the completion of this study without which it would not have been successfully completed.

I express my feelings of gratitude to members of my family. I owe whole hearted thanks to my husband Mr. P.K. Sharma for his deep concern and understanding which boosted my zeal and strength to go ahead with my Ph.D. work. Further, I can never forget the prized contribution to my son, Ojeshwar Sharma and daughter Gunjan Sharma, who coped up with my absences courageously.
I express my thanks to my Father & Mother for their kind cooperation and constant encouragement. And a whole hearted thanks to my father-in-law Shri Shiv Kumar Sharma and for his kind cooperation and encouragement.

I am extremely grateful to the authors whose precious works have been freely consulted, quoted and referred in my research work.

I am really thankful to all the Principals of B. Ed colleges of Mumbai University, who acted as subjects for data collection for my research work.
