ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My journey towards this maiden research had been quiet challenging and interesting and I tried put maximum efforts to get the best out of this Ph.D. programme. In the process, I had an opportunity to interact with some of the best academicians and practitioners/professionals and this indeed had been a memorable and unique learning experience for me which will become a guiding star for rest of my life. I honestly consider it an God sent opportunity. I thank all of them who taught me different things which lack in formal studies and learnings.

Understanding and Involvement of Dr. V.K. Kaushik guided me to complete this thesis in the best possible manner in which I could imagine. The continual motivation and perspicacious observations provided by him always propelled me to go that extra mile. Guiding research scholar is like nurturing a plant. I cannot express my gratitude and his contribution to this thesis and in my life in the shape & volume of words. I will always be indebted to him for his guidance and support due to which I could complete this work.

I extend my sincere thanks towards the faculty members at Institute of Management Studies and Research (IMSAR) at Maharshi Dayanand University (MDU), Rohtak. In fact I am really indebted to Dr.H.J.Ghosh Roy who had been an a bacon light not only for this study but also in my professional and personal life which always motivated me to continue my work with better energy levels. I am also thankful to Dr.Shalini Sirgh, Dr. Ravi Gupta, Dr.Sanket Vij who always had a word of motivation, appreciation and provided their support to me.

During the Management Development Programme at IIM Ahemadabad in July 2012, I had opportunity to interact with faculty and staff who taught me the value of time and concerted efforts which are essential ingredients for a meaningful professional & personal life.

My work owes a lot to my family for their motivation and untiring support which always helped me through the thick & thin phases of my personal & professional life. Almighty God had been kind to me during this phase of journey because without 'HIS' wishes nothing is possible.
