Thanks giving and expression of one’s gratitude is a pleasant task on the completion of a work, to accomplish which would have been rather impossible but for the direct and indirect assistance and support of others including the invisible hand. Pursuing a Ph.d is not an easy task. It is both a painful and an enjoyable experience. Its just like climbing a high peak step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardship, frustration, encouragement and trust with generous help of so many people. Many people have directly or indirectly contributed in this endeavor.

First of all I will accept that it is solely and exclusively due to the mercy of almighty “ALLAH” without whose blessings the present work would not have been possible. He endowed me with the requisite knowledge and ability to produce this piece of work. I bow down to him on gratitude with all humility from the depth of my heart.

I will be having great pleasure in expressing thanks and profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Kr. Sajid Ali Khan, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, A.M.U. Aligarh for his painstaking and able guidance. This work would have never been completed, had I not blessed with such a kind and generous supervisor. He has not only inspired me in my every endeavor, but also imbided in me the courage to overcome any obstacles that came in between. He was the one who gave me the right direction to work and has been the driving force throughout the study. His sense of responsibility towards this work, and wise council smoothed the rough patches and his able guidance throughout, are the pillars upon which this thesis stands.
I owe my sincere thanks to Prof. Abu Sufian Zilli, Chairperson, Department of Psychology for his constant encouragement and moral support.

It will be unjust if I will not thanks to my brother-in-law Dr. Feroz Alam who sometimes acted as an elder and sometimes as a brother and helped me throughout this work.

I do not find adequate words to express my thanks to my seniors Shaili Mishra and Nasreen Ansari who helped me in every possible way. I am really thankful to them for their constant sympathetic attitude and special blessings for me.

The job will be unfinished if I will not thanks to my friends and juniors Munawwar, Nadeem, Akram, Sabih, Rushda, Fariha, Faisal Salim and Khurram Salim. They have been a Northern star in the moments of darkness and pillar of strength in troubled times during all the phases of the study.

One person who has always been a wonderful friend and source of inspiration is my loving sister Shabana Parveen. She is due to mention for her moral support, encouragement, kind behavior and so on and so forth. She has always been there to share my moments of distress and joy. At time she lends me shoulder and at other time she bore the torch of affection. I thank Lord Almighty for making her my angel sibling to help me get throughout the ups and downs of completion of my research.
Good people are rare and for that I express my genuine indebtedness to my husband Dr. Ch. Mohammad Parvez Alam. He has been a source of inspiration throughout the work. With him this mammoth work had been made simple. Really, I have walked through the long difficult years of my research due to him. He added fun in my life and understood me during the peak work load. There is no way I could have completed this work without his forbearance and kind affection. I may not be able to thank him in any ways. I must say “I could have never travelled up till this end without you”.

Lastly but by no means least, I feel great pleasure to thanks to my kids baby Irtiqua and Master Huzaifa whose smiling face were always a source of strength and encouragement for me. I love you both.

Thanks are to all the other members of the family and to all those people who are directly or indirectly helped me in this work.
