ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This is the occasion to express my gratitude to several people and institutions that have helped me at various stages in the presentation of this study. Foremost is Dr. K.N. Ganesh, my supervisor, whose encouragement, suggestions and patience lie too heavily on this work to be set down in one sentence. More than a guide, it was he who initiated me into the intricacies of historical research. My friends, Dr. K.K. Abdul Sathar and Abdurahiman Mangad, have contributed so many things that have gone into this volume that contextual acknowledgement would look ponderous. It is also the occasion to extend my sincere thanks to the staff of Nehru Memorial Museum & Library, Delhi, National Archives, Delhi, Tamil Nadu Archives, Chennai, Regional Archives, Calicut, Appan Tampuran Library, Trichur, History Department Library, University of Calicut, and the Mathrubhumi, Calicut. I have special thanks to all my friends at the Research Hostel of Calicut University, who have blessed my efforts with amusement. My colleague and friend, A. Muhammed spent his valuable time correcting my grammar and punctuation. If inspite of that, mistakes remain, he must surely be responsible. Finally, I extend my gratitude to Dr. T.M. Vijayan, the Head of the Department of History, Calicut University.
