BIBLIOGRAPHY
A. BOOKS

54. White "pressure on world leaders" in Coleman, J.C. Abnormal psychology and modern life 1986, pp. 648-649.

36. Ellis, E.F. Asthma - The demon that thrives on myths. Today's health, 1970, 48(6), PP. 63-64.

39. Fenichel, O. Problems of psychoanalytic technique, parts. psychoanalysis qusrt. 1939, 8, PP. 1-4.

41. Filip, M. Psychosocial and Socio Medical problems in the Medical profession. Cesk Zdrav 1989 Nov; 37(11); PP. 478-484.

44. Garg, A; Owen, B; Reducing back stress to nursing personnel; an ergonomic intervention in a nursing home. Ergonomics, Nov. 1992; 35(11); PP. 1353-75.

47. Grant, P.S; Manage nurse stress and increase potential at the bedside. Nursing Administration Quarterly 1993 Fall : 18(1) ; PR 16-22.

55. Herschbach, P; [stress in the hospital - stresses on nurses and physician]. Psychotherapy - Psychosom-med-psychology ; May 1991 ; 41(5); PP. 176-86.

81. Linton-JC; Kommor-MJ; Webb-CH; Helping the helpers: the development of a critical incident stress management team through University/Community Co-operation. Ann-Emergency medicine. April 1993; 22(4); 663-668.

102. Pasamanick, B. Prevalence and distribution of psychosomatic conditions in an urban population according to social class. Psychosomatic/Medicine : 1962j 24,352-56.

113. Revicki, DA; May, HJ; organizational characteristics, occupational stress and mental health in nurses. Journal of Behaviour Medicine, 1989 Spring; 15(1); P. 30-36.

C. REPORTS

D. THESES

