The present study would not have been completed without the help of many individuals and institutions from whom I have drawn generous help. I deem it as my humble and pleasant duty to thank all of them.

First of all, I am very grateful to my Research guide, Dr. G.R. Krishnamurthy M.A., M.S.W., Ph.D., D.A.M.S., Ph.D., Professor, post graduate department Roshini Nilaya, Mangalore, for his outstanding guidance and encouragement enabled me to complete this work. While thanking him, I am aware that his enduring encouragement would remain a source of inspiration throughout my life.

I owe a debt of gratitude to Dr(Ms). Philomena D'Souza, Professor cum Principal, School of Social Work, Roshini Nilaya for her motherly attitude and encouragement in pursuing this work. In fact she is a source of inspiration to many research scholars like me.

I am grateful to the Heads of Institutions of both Government and Private Hospitals in Mangalore especially to Dr. Sagane Gowda former District Surgeon and Medical Superintendent, Kasturba Medical College Hospital, Mangalore for according me permission to study in their Hospitals and extending their cooperation in every phase of my investigation.

I am very much grateful to Prof. Dr. M.G.Mokashi, Principal, Laxmi Memorial College of Physiotherapy, Mangalore for his suggestions and encouragement while carrying out this work. I am especially very much grateful and happy to acknowledge Prof. P.N. Saha, Ex-Director, Central Labour Institute, Bombay and currently Hon. Professor of Physiology, LMCP, Mangalore, who exercised great care and patience in correcting the Manuscript and for his critical comments in various parts of this thesis.

I am grateful to all the respondents (Nurses, Doctors and patients) for their co-operation and readiness for giving accurate information.

I am grateful to Mr. Subramanyan Chengalpet for his statistical guidance. My thanks are also to those who helped me either directly or indirectly in carryout this work. I am thankful to my friend Mr. Anand S. Doss for his encouragement throughout this Research.

I am thankful to the Librarians of School of Social Work, Roshini Nilaya, Mangalore, National Institute of Mental Health and Neuro Sciences, Bangalore, Christian Medical College, Vellore and Institute of Nursing Sciences, Kavoor for their obliging service during my visits.

I am grateful to my parents and other family members for their encouragements and emotional support to carryout this work. In particular I am thankful to my aunt Mrs. Esther Rani for her financial help in carrying out this thesis work.

I am thankful to Mrs. Volga Pais, Mrs. Thejakshi and Miss Ambika for neatly typing the manuscript.
